

The Challenges of the Multilingual and Multicultural Classroom

International Workshop

22 October 2009

Aarhus School of Business, Aarhus University in collaboration with the European Language Council (ELC)

- 9.30 Registration
- 10.00 Words of welcome & Introduction to the workshop
Peder Østergaard, ASB Vice-Dean, Director of Education
Karen M. Lauridsen, Aarhus School of Business, Aarhus University, Denmark
- The Multilingual & Multicultural Classroom – what does it mean for the university?
Anne Räsänen, University of Jyväskylä, Finland
- Teaching and learning in English – the students' perspective
Glenn Ole Hellekjær, University of Oslo, Norway
- 12.00 Lunch
- 13.00 The integration of the international researchers/teachers in the department
Jakob Lauring, Aarhus School of Business, Aarhus University, Denmark
- Cultural and Linguistic Practices in the International University
Bent Preisler, University of Roskilde, Denmark
- Refreshments
- What are the challenges of the Multilingual and Multicultural Classroom?
- Can we map all the challenges?
 - Do we already have some of the solutions?
 - What else needs to be done in order to meet these challenges?
- Group discussions
- 16.15 End of workshop

