

CONSEIL EUROPEEN POUR LES LANGUES
EUROPEAN LANGUAGE COUNCIL (CEL/ELC)

2014 Elections to the CEL/ELC Board Declaration of candidature

I hereby declare my candidature for the elections to the Board which will be held at the 16th General Assembly (Brussels, 5 December 2014).

First name: Anastasia

Second name: Atabekova

CEL/ELC Member institution / organization:
Peoples' Friendship University of Russia

I should like to make the following contribution(s) to the future development of the CEL/ELC:

- 1) participate in CEL/ELC SIG (I was a member of SIG on TIPS, and presented a report Crowd sourcing in Translation: Challenges and benefits for multilingual Europe at CEL/ELC GA forum in 2012)
- 2) promote joint (CEL member universities and PFUR) research projects funded by Russian research foundations;
- 3) host at PFUR conferences, forums, and other events that are organized by CEL/ELC
- 4) disseminate CEL/ELC SIGs findings through Russia-wide academic journals (being an expert and reviewer in a number of such journals) that are indexed in Russian Science Citation Index (bibliographic database of scientific publications);
- 5) provide CEL/ELC research groups with questionnaires data on the issues under study by using PFUR multicultural student community (on average representatives from 150 countries annually) as focus groups members, respondents, etc.

I have CEL/ELC-relevant expertise and experience in the following fields:

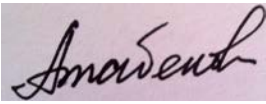

multilingualism in education, translator and interpreter training, language and culture mediation, technology in foreign language learning,

My fields of interest are:

- university-based language and culture mediators' training
- validation of non-formal and informal learning
- technology in foreign language and mediation skills training

Place: Moscow
